SUNDAY NIGHT SERIES

LESSON NINETEEN: Unveiling the Final Warnings (22:6-21)

Sunday Evening Message on May 8, 2016 (by Ray Reynolds)

Introduction: The book of Revelation was written to the seven churches of Asia Minor for immediate application. We have reached the last section of the prophetic book. We have looked beyond the veil and have to make a choice. What will we do with the vision we have seen? What should we do after reading this book of prophesy? Let's study together...

Discussion:

I. The Time Is Near (22:6-11)

- He promised to come quickly to remove the candlestick from the church at Ephesus (Revelation 2:5).
- He promised to come quickly to fight against the wicked of the church at Pergamos (Revelation 2:16)
- He promised to come quickly to aid the weak members of the church at Philadelphia (Revelation 3:11).
- He promised to come quickly to encourage the Christians who were reading this book (Revelation 22:7).
- He promised to come quickly to give a reward to those who had done good works (Revelation 22:12).
- He promised to come quickly to John's readers (Revelation 22:20).
- He is Faithful & True and He will keep His promise!

II. The Testimony Is True (22:12-17)

What titles and testimony prove Jesus will keep His promises?

III. The Choice Is Yours (22:18-21)

What are the differences between Heaven and earth?

Why does God allow us to have the freedom to choose?

Conclusion: These wonderful last words of God's written word show both finality and certainty. The end will come. Jesus will return for His own. You cannot ride the fence. Remember the three facts Revelation: 1) God wins. 2) Choose Your Side. 3) Don't Be Foolish. These words undoubtedly encouraged the seven churches of Asia Minor and have encouraged Christians for centuries. What will you do with the words of Revelation? How long will you wait to make a choice? Are you ready to meet God? Are you ready for Jesus to come again?
