THE 2014 THEME

We are excited to announce that this year's theme for TITUS Camp is "Unshakable: The Power of Love." If you have read your New Testament you already know that Jesus's words are very clear: "If you love Me, keep My commandments" (John 14:15). Really this sentiment was echoed throughout the Old Testament as well, but it is made clearer in the New Testament. The disciples of Jesus tried to teach this to the church with the same zeal and enthusiasm. I John 3:23 says, "And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ and love one another, as He gave us commandment." To believe in Jesus Christ is essential but the evidence of a changed life is seen when we love one another.

I Corinthians 13 is widely recognized as the "chapter of love" among Christians, but there is a deeper message within this passage of 1 Corinthians. Paul doesn't just say we should love one another; he described love in detail and reveals why every noble thing done by a Christian (i.e. good works, giving, serving, ministry, martyrdom) are nothing without love as the motivation for such action. For this reason, we have chosen I Corinthians 13 as our text for this tenth session of TITUS Camp which says (NKJV):

¹Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. ²And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. ³And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing.

⁴Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; ⁵does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; ⁶does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; ⁷bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

⁸Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away. ⁹For we know in part and we prophesy in part. ¹⁰But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away.

¹¹When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. ¹²For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

¹³And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

This chapter is undoubtedly crucial for Christians because, unfortunately, the English language has one word for love. The word love can be used to describe how much we love our coffee, our phone, our pet, our favorite sports team, our family, or "significant" other! The point is that while the people in Bible times had many different words to describe love, Paul is compelling us to not think of the words we use, but our actions! What love produces is much more valuable to those around us, and to ourselves, than we imagine.

We feel it is important for Christian leaders to plug-in to the power of love...God, who is the eternal source of love (I John 4:8)! Therefore, we are going to spend the next week considering the aspects of Christian love and immerse ourselves into the context of Paul's letter to the Corinthians. Our clusters will even be named in honor of Paul's faithful companions: Barnabas, Demas, Epaphras, John Mark, Luke, Onesimus, Silas, Trophimus. We hope this study will challenge us to be unshakable in our Christian walk!
