

THE SECRET TO CHRISTIAN ASSURANCE

(Sermon by Ray Reynolds – 1/25/09 - AM)

Text: Romans 8:28

Introduction: Every family has family secrets. Every cook has their own “secret ingredients.” Paul reveals the secret to living a life of Christian assurance. The secret is found in Romans 8:28. This one verse has given comfort to millions of people. As we study together, I want us to see what this verse is so special. . . .

Discussion:

I. This Great Assurance Is Confidential

And we know

II. This Great Assurance Is Comprehensive

That all things

III. This Great Assurance Is Constructive

Work together for good

IV. This Great Assurance Is Cooperative

To those who love God

V. This Great Assurance Is Conditional

To those who are the called

VI. This Great Assurance Is Consistent

According to His purpose

Conclusion: Together as a family we enjoy our spiritual secrets. But just like a good recipe, it’s only good when it is shared with others. We need to find ways to share this secret with those around us. Don’t be afraid to share this message and bring assurance to someone else. Millions more long to know the secret of assurance.
