Text: Psalm 51:10-12

Introduction: Have you ever asked yourself the question, “What ever happened to the joy?” Maybe it was in your personal life, in your marriage, or in the church. We all have those times when we just want the joy back. We are going to study about some people that were robbed of their joy

Discussion:

I. David Was Robbed of His Joy (II Samuel 11-12)

- A. Who robbed him of his joy? Why?
- B. How did they restore the joy?

II. Jonah Was Robbed of His Joy (Jonah 3:10-4:2)

- A. Who robbed him of his joy? Why?
- B. How did they restore the joy?

III. Simon Was Robbed of His Joy (Acts 8:9-24)

- A. Who robbed him of his joy? Why?
- B. How did they restore the joy?

IV. The Jews Were Robbed of Their Joy (Hebrews 11-12)

- A. Who robbed them of their joy? Why?
- B. How did they restore the joy?

Conclusion: We are often looking for joy robbers, but they are closer than we might think (I Corinthians 6:9-11). Check the mirror! Are you ready to have joy in your life? Its time to restore the joy!
