SUNDAY NIGHT SERIES

LESSON ONE: Unveiling the Revelation of Jesus Christ

Sunday Evening Message on September 6, 2015 (by Ray Reynolds)

Introduction: Why is John's gospel the last account (John 20:30-31, John 21:25)? We need to see how beautiful the New Testament is knit together. What is the purpose behind a New Testament prophetic book? Revelation gives the behind-the-scenes view of heaven for the seven churches of Asia. Let's study together....

Discussion:

I. The Author of the Book

II. The Date of the Book

III. The Purpose of the Book

IV. The Views of Interpretation for the Book

V. The Apocalyptic Language of Revelation

VI. The Beattitudes of Revelation

VII. The Outline of Our Study

Conclusion: John said, "Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near." (Revelation 1:3). This thought is echoed from start to finish (Revelation 1:1, 1:4, 1:7, 1:9, 1:19-20, 22:6, 22:10) and is evident by the messages to the contemporaries of John (Revelation 1:9-11). It teaches us that God's way is the best way. Remember two things: God is in control and Jesus is coming soon. Will you be ready? Are you prepared for Judgment Day?
