CHURCH OF CHRIST

SUNDAY NIGHT SERIES

LESSON NINE: Unveiling the Church at Philadelphia (3:7-13)

Sunday Evening Message January 3, 2016 (by Ray Reynolds)

Introduction: The book of Revelation was clearly written to the seven churches of Asia for immediate application. John includes seven individual letters to these churches in chapters 2-3. These are the pronouncements of the King! Each of the congregations in the New Testament had unique features, characteristics, and social dynamics. Jesus is aware of their works. In this lesson we are going to consider the church in Philadelphia. What can we learn about the letter written in Revelation to the church at Philadelphia? Let's study together....

Discussion:

I. The Location of Philadelphia

II. The Lifestyle in Philadelphia

III. The Lord's Church in Philadelphia

IV. The Letter to the Church in Philadelphia

Conclusion: God clearly blessed the church in Philadelphia. He loved them very much. What would you do if God wrote this letter to you? Would you repeat the message? Would you follow it? God has given us a message to read... the Holy Bible! Will you read it? Will you follow it? Don't ignore its message. Make application of it. Who is Jesus to you? Are you walking with Him? Have you taken steps to ensure your salvation? He will come again! Will you be ready?
